

How To Do the PUB Crawl Like a Local

OPEN YEAR ROUND

Salt: By far our favorite bar if what you are in the mood for is a well crafted cocktail in a pretty setting with excellent service.

The Viking: A weird dance hall: usually karaoke, pole dancing, pool and pimps.

The Alaskan: Where all the cool kids hang out, live music most weekends – fantastic antique bar... Often smells like patchouli and/or old bleach rag. Thursday night Open mic is THE place to be.

The Triangle: Mingle with legislators and locals alike in a lowbrow setting. – weekly Trivia nights.

The Narrows: 2017 brought Juneau its first high-brow craft cocktail bar. You gotta be in the know ‘cause the sign outside says Arctic Bar. No secret handshake needed.

The Bubble Room: In the Baranof Hotel – mix with businessmen, women and legislators in a highbrow setting. The service is surly.

Imperial: Play pool with the younger crowd. On a nice day they open their garage doors on the street side and it’s a great place to drink inside/outside and count how many couples off the ships are in matching track suits weekly Trivia nights.

Hangar: Huge variety of beers on tap, great view. Very popular because it’s got something for everyone. Food’s meh....

The Red Dog: We’re going to guess you’ll hate it since you opted not to take a cruise ship here, but it’s worth a quick peek. The ‘in thing’ is to order a Duck Fart. Why? We have no clue. The gift shop’s popular... if you need a garter belt that says “Juneau.”

McGivney’s: In the Goldbelt Hotel. Juneau’s biggest sports bar. Tons of TV’s and tap handles. They have Juneau’s only pour your own beer and a Football ticket. So if Sunday football is your thing – head here for a great Bloody Mary and a big big crowd.

Lucky Lady: Never been – too scared!

The Rendezvous: Classic kind of smelly dive bar. Cheap beer. LGBTQ+

TASTING ROOMS

Amalga Distillery: is there a better Gift to bring home than a locally crafted bottle of whiskey? 1-7 pm

Alaska Brewery: Our most beloved business in town. Tasting room is 6 miles from town. Bus or drive there. Generous with their samples.

Barnaby Brewery: nano-brewery 12-7:30pm daily. You may as well try it all.

Devils Club: nano-brewery – 4-8 pm daily. Check out this beautiful old theater reno!

SUMMER ONLY!!!

Dave's Deck Hand: This excellent food cart expanding out with a beer tent. If it's a nice day it'll be hard to beat that setting.

Alaska Fish and Chips Company: Outdoor seating on the water with heat lamps. Watch the float planes come and go. Locals love it too so get there early if the sun is shining. Menu consists of order at the counter mostly fried food, aka not one single healthy item.

Twisted Fish: Outside seating right by the tram. Watch the fish processors bring in their catch to the Smoke house. Full bar, the sometimes have an outside fire pit which is excellent. Stick to ordering seafood – there are numerous very fresh options.

And lastly – end your drunken night at Pel'Menis Russian Dumpling Shop. They're open all hours of the night, and only serve one thing. They also have a record player that plays vinyl records, and the guys behind the counter will let you play what you want.

NOT A BIG DRINKER – No problem.

There is SO much going on!
